

"The Leaning Tree of Sycamore Island." Photograph by Fred W. Moore, the Portner apartments, winner of The Star's weekly prize of $10 for the best amateur photograph.

To Representative C. J. McLeod of Michigan, the youngest member of Congress, was awarded the honor of driving the first nail in the stand being erected on the east steps of the Capitol for the Harding inaugural. The boys in the photograph are congressional pages.

National Photo Co.

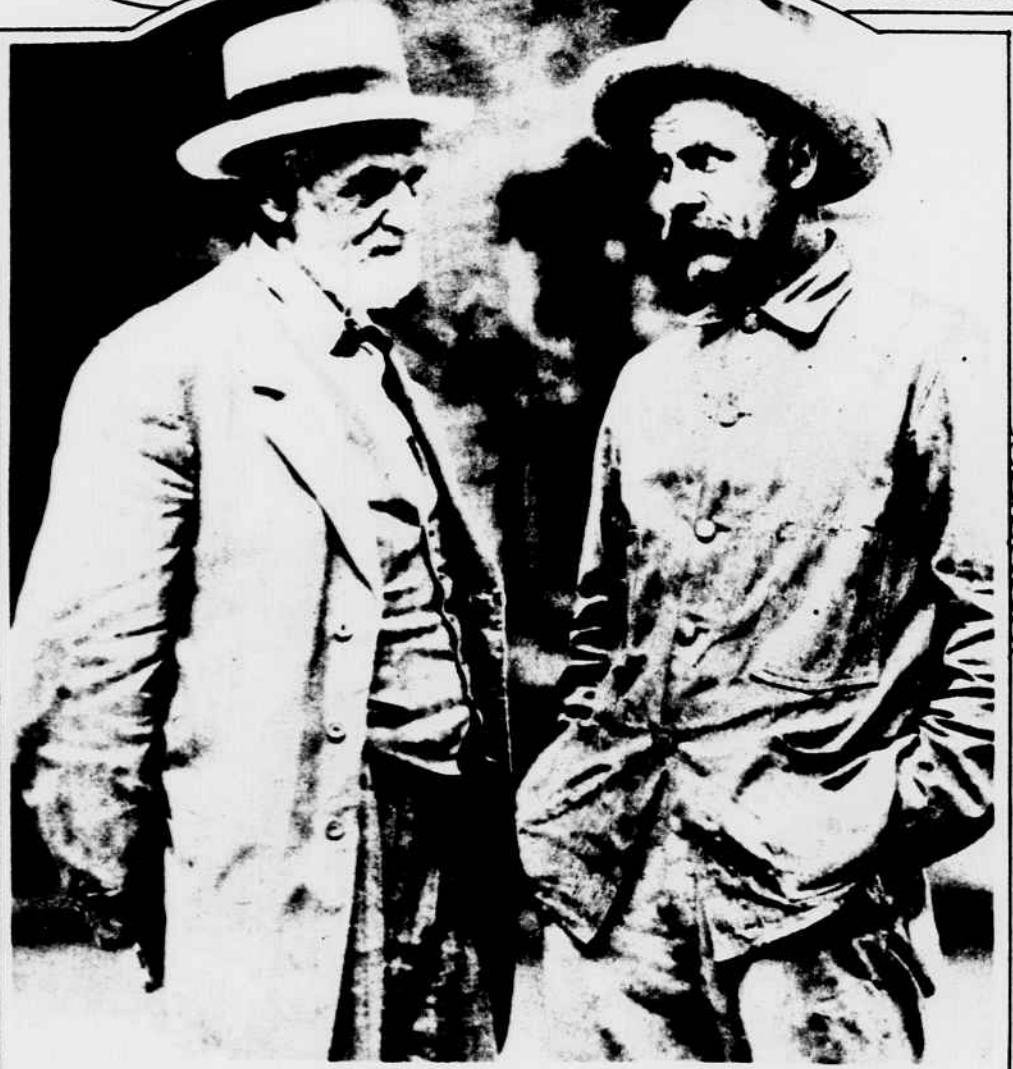

"Everybody out!" came the order; and out they came! This is not a mob scene in the newest movie sensation, but students of Georgetown University leaving their quarters when a dormitory caught fire. Considerable damage was done the building before firemen succeeded in extinguishing the blaze.

By International Film Service.

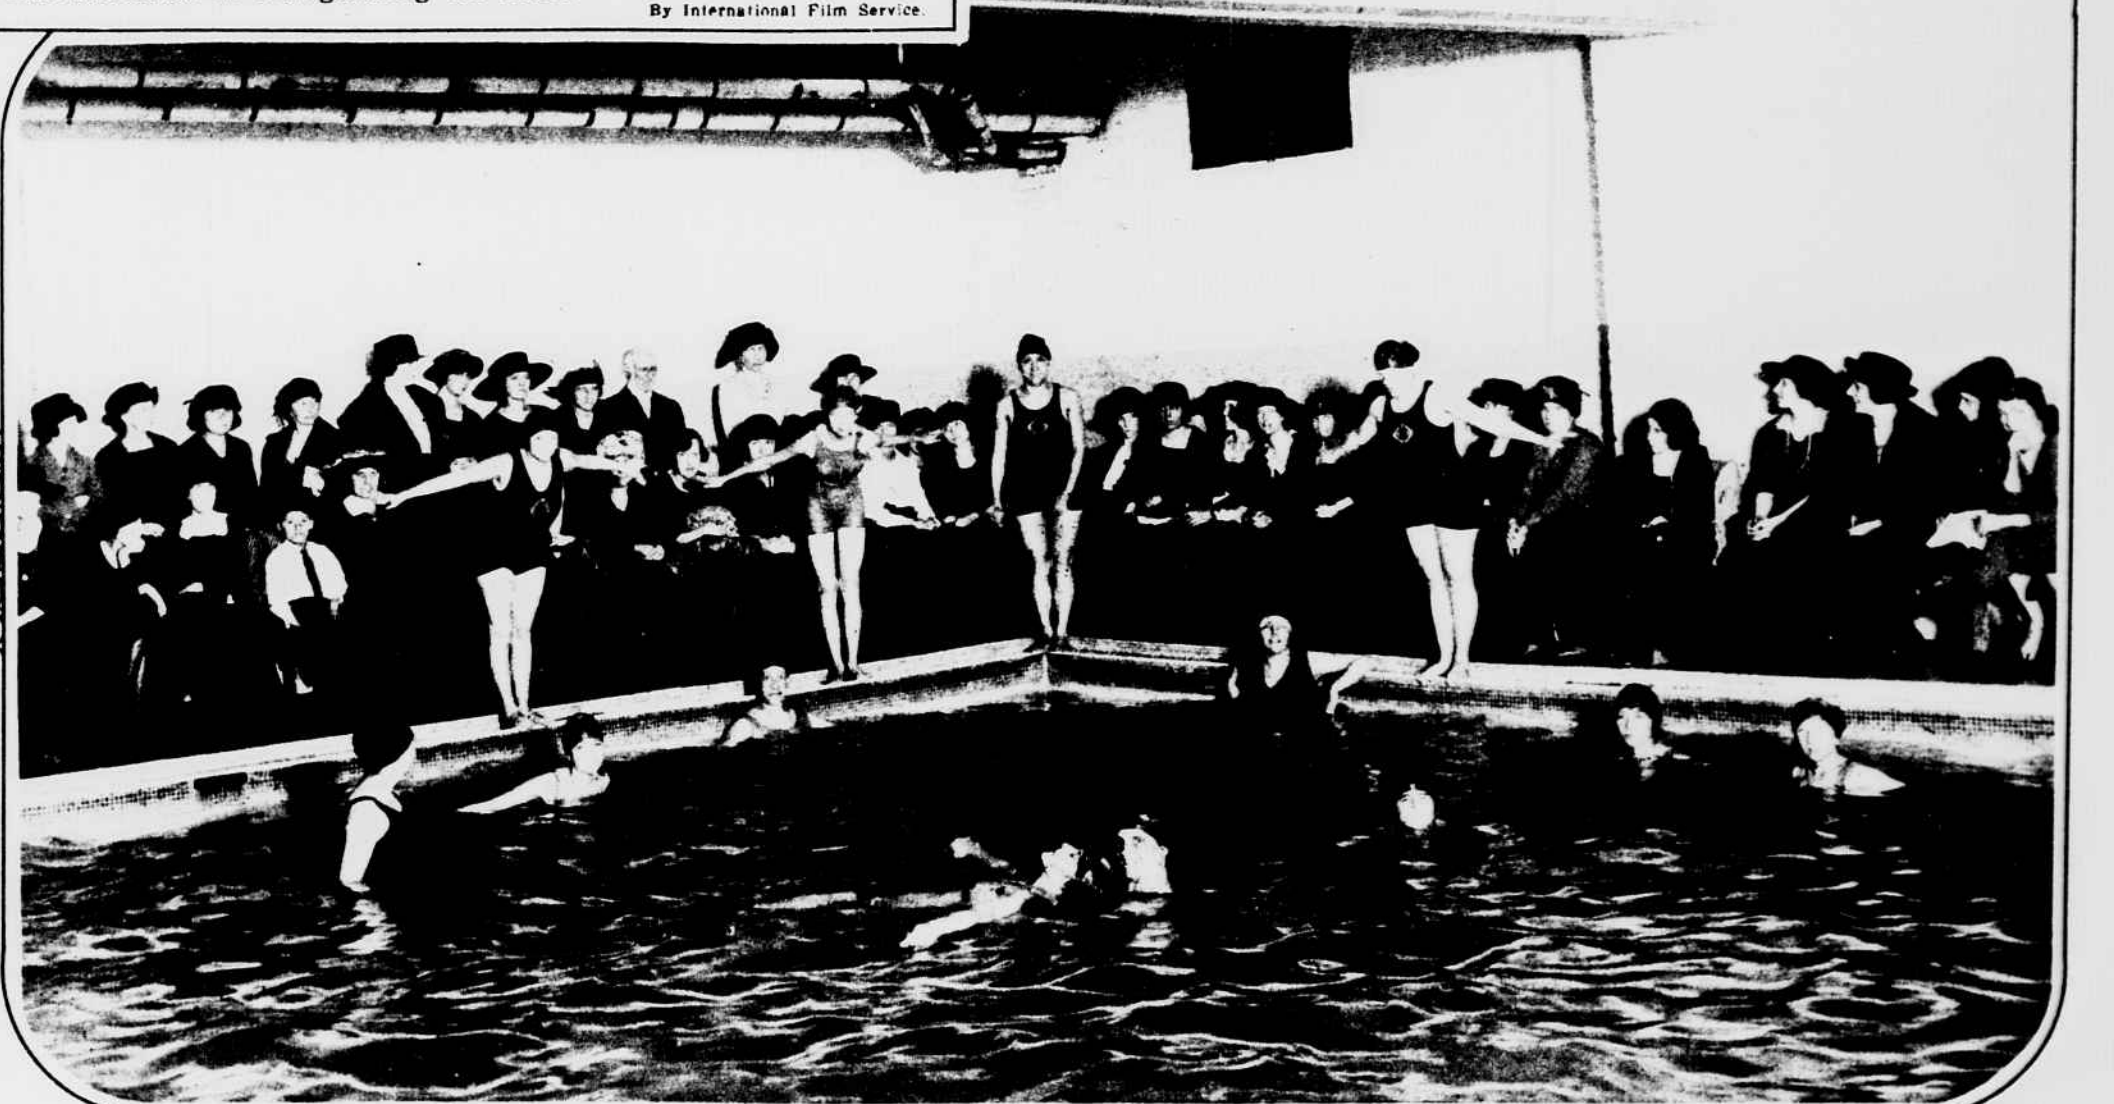

First original Chinese play is presented by Chinese students of Columbia University. The climax of the unusual stage-piece comes when one of the daughters, who does not want her father to go to war, takes his place and wins all sorts of honors.

© Kadel & Herbert.

Cousins of President-elect Harding, who were also his boyhood chums, will attend inauguration. They are Loren and Amos Harding, both of Marion.

Underwood & Underwood.

Scene at seventh anniversary of inauguration of the Red Cross Life Saving Corps, held at the Washington Y. W. C. A. swimming pool. Fancy diving and swimming exhibitions, as well as life-saving events, were on the program.

National Photo Co.